

Escrick Primary School SMSC

Subject	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
Maths	By making connections between pupils' numeracy skills and real life; for example, pie charts could compare how a child in Africa spends their day with how children in the UK spend their time. By considering pattern, order, symmetry and scale both man made and in the natural world	By engaging pupils playfully; for example, in unequal shares of resources, why might someone be upset if they received less than other people? By reflecting on data that has moral and ethical implications; for example pupils might consider the difference in amounts of money spent on non-essentials compared with food aid/water aid	By the sharing of resources within the classroom, the negotiating of responses and group problem solving By analysing social data e.g. on health care, poverty, bullying	By asking questions about the history of maths: for example, 'What did the Egyptians, Greeks and Indians discover that we still use in maths today?'

Escrick Primary School SMSC

English and Literacy	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	In responding to a poem, story or text; pupils can be asked 'I wonder what you think happens next?' 'How would you feel if you were the person in the story?' 'Where have you met these ideas before?' By appreciating the beauty of language	By exploring stimuli for thinking about the consequences of right and wrong behavior; pupils can speculate and apply their learning to their own lives. When they do this they are developing their speaking, listening and higher order thinking skills. By considering different perspectives	By supporting conceptual and language development through an understanding of and debates about social issues By providing opportunities for talk in a range of settings	By pupils telling stories from their own cultures and backgrounds creating the idea that 'everyone has a story to tell' By providing opportunities for pupils to engage with texts from different cultures

Escrick Primary School SMSC

Science	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By demonstrating openness to the fact that some answers cannot be provided by Science By creating opportunities for pupils to ask questions about how living things rely on and contribute to their environment By using tools such as Star Walk which allow pupils to plot the stars in relation to their location and open up questions about the size of the universe and how it might have been formed	By offering pupils the chance to consider the wonder of the natural world and the inventions which have made the world a better place By considering that not all developments have been good because they have caused harm to the environment and to people By encouraging pupils to speculate about how science can be used both for good and evil	By using opportunities during science lessons to explain how to keep other people safe and how they might protect a younger or vulnerable young person By exploring the social dimension of scientific advances e.g. environmental concerns; medical advances; energy processes	By asking questions about the ways in which scientific discoveries from around the world have affected our lives. There is a rich heritage of scientific discoveries from Hindu, Egyptian and Muslim traditions

Escrick Primary School SMSC

MFL (Modern Foreign Languages)	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By exploring the beauty of languages from around the world By exploring the way language is constructed	By helping pupils to have an accurate and truthful understanding of another culture	By learning the skill of communicating in different ways By exploring different social conventions e.g. forms of address	By appreciating the language and customs of others By exploring the literature and culture of other countries By taking part in exchange visits or cultural occasions

Escrick Primary School SMSC

History	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By considering how things would be different if the course of events had been different; for example what difference would it have made if the Normans had not been successful in 1066? By looking at local history and investigating the reasons why there is a landmark, building or museum By speculating about how we mark important events from history and the people who shaped them	By exploring the results of right and wrong behaviour in the past By considering some of the characteristics of people who have had a bad influence and caused suffering to others. What have others done to stop injustice? Are there examples from their own local area? By going beyond the facts and asking pupils to make hypotheses and pose questions such as 'What if...?' 'What would have turned a tragedy into a triumph?'	By giving the trigger for discussions about how groups and communities organised themselves in the past By considering questions about social structure in the past; e.g. what might pupils say about the rights of children in earlier times? Is it important that society looks after young children? Are there people who still don't get a fair deal? By encouraging pupils to talk to their parents and grandparents; e.g. when learning about World War Two	By exploring local history and under researched history and history around us By investigating how culture is shaped by history, exploring the 'cultural heritage' and in particular the Christian influence on British culture. E.g. changes over time, arrival of different ethnic and cultural groups By taking pupils on visits to heritage sites By investigating Britain's democratic parliamentary system and its central role in shaping our history and values

Escrick Primary School SMSC

Geography	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By using Google maps and asking pupils to imagine what it might be like to live in different parts of the world By making links with history when exploring the environment and speculating on why the landscape is as it is By comparing their lives with pupils living in other countries or other parts of the UK	By considering how people treat the environment; posing questions such as, 'How are we changing our surroundings – are some things for the better and others for the worse?' Who benefits and who suffers? What should be our personal response to these? Who should look after our environment? By working towards Eco status or an Eco award	By providing positive and effective links with the wider community, both locally and through linking with other schools with different demographics both in the UK and globally By considering social responsibility, e.g care for the environment; impact of traffic on the local area; tourism	By making links with other countries through schools linking and cultural theme days By exploring links through the British Council and European Union By exploring cultures that have had, and still have, an impact on the local area

Escrick Primary School SMSC

RE	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By experiencing wonder and joy through learning about and from stories, celebrations, rituals and different expressions of religion and worldviews By asking and responding to questions of meaning and purpose By considering questions about God and evaluating truth claims By exploring spiritual practices such as worship and prayer, and considering the impact of these on believers as well as any relevance to their own life	By exploring morality including rules, teachings and commands such as The Golden Rule, the ten commandments, the sayings (hadith) of Muhammad By investigating the importance of service to others in Sikhism, Hinduism and Buddhism By exploring religious perspectives and responses to evil and suffering in the world By asking questions about the purpose and meaning of reconciliation and salvation e.g exploring Yom Kippur, Christian salvation story	By exploring the qualities which are valued by a civilised society – thoughtfulness, honesty, respect for difference, independence and interdependence By asking questions about the social impact of religion	By exploring similarities and differences between faiths and cultures By considering in particular different cultural expressions of Christianity. By learning about UK saints and those to which their school might be named after By engaging with text, artefacts and other sources from different cultures and religious backgrounds

Escrick Primary School SMSC

PSHE	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By developing awareness of and responding to others' needs and wants By exploring meaning and purpose for individuals and society By developing resilience and inner strength	By exploring what is right and wrong and to work out what we need to do in this particular community to make sure everyone thrives By making explicit links to the school's distinctive ethos as a church school	By helping pupils to engage in a democratic process for agreeing the rules for community life By creating opportunities for pupils to exercise leadership and responsibility; pupils might be asked 'Why do we think this important?' 'What could we do about it?' 'Who would like to take it further?'	By exploring how different cultures can offer great insights into how we lead our lives By providing pupils with opportunities to make choices about some aspects of classroom and school life

Escrick Primary School SMSC

Art and Design	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By providing plenty of rich opportunities for pupils to explore both the spiritual dimension and natural phenomena e.g. Northern Lights By exploring different artists' interpretations of a key figure or event and asking what the artist was trying to convey By allowing pupils to show what they know through their own expression of big ideas about life e.g. morality; ethical issues By promoting the process of 'reviewing and evaluating'; for example, see the work of David Hockney	By exploring how emotions and inner feelings are expressed through painting, sculpture and architecture By responses to and use of visual images to evoke a range of emotions	By sharing of resources By exploring social conflict and resolution By exploring art as a powerful social tool e.g. in advertising, in representing particular groups	By experiencing a wide range of creative media from around the world By developing aesthetic and critical awareness

Escrick Primary School SMSC

Music	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By allowing pupils to show their delight and curiosity in creating their own sounds By making links between their learning in literacy (or other curriculum area) with music being played as background By considering how music makes one feel and can 'move us' deeply	By exploring how music can convey human emotions such as sadness; joy; anger... By appreciating the self-discipline required to learn a musical instrument	By exploring how an orchestra works together By discussing what would happen if musicians in a band/group didn't co-operate By appreciating how music is used in different ways in different settings e.g. for pleasure; for worship; to help people relax	By giving all pupils an opportunity to learn a musical instrument and to take part regularly in singing By encouraging pupils to listen and respond to traditions from around the world By appreciating musical expression from different times and places

Escrick Primary School SMSC

Drama	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By allowing for insight, self-expression and the chance to walk in someone else's shoes	By expressing what it feels like to be wronged and what remedies might make things better for the injured	By exploring similarities and differences and how respect for others can be expressed By building self-esteem and encouraging self-worth	By taking different roles from other backgrounds By using different dramatic conventions to encourage empathy
Design and Technology	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By enjoying and celebrating personal creativity By reviewing and evaluating created things	By raising questions about the effect of technological change on human life and the world around us	By exploring dilemmas that individuals may face and developing practical solutions to these problems	By considering cultural influences on design By asking questions about functionality v aesthetics

Escrick Primary School SMSC

Computing	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By wondering at the power of the digital age e.g. use of the internet By understanding the advantages and limitations of ICT By using the internet as a gateway to big life issues	By exploring the moral issues surrounding the use of data By considering the benefits and potential dangers of the internet – e.g. campaigns for charities and injustice as a force for good. Cyber bullying as a danger By considering the vision of those involved in developing the web	By links through digital media services with other schools and communities By highlighting ways to stay safe when using online services and social media By being prepared to work with technology to forge new relationships By discussing the impact of ICT on the ways people communicate	By exploring human achievements and creativity in relation to worldwide communications By developing a sense of awe and wonder at human ingenuity

Escrick Primary School SMSC

PE	We promote spiritual development	We promote moral development	We promote social development	We promote cultural development
	By delighting in movement, particularly when pupils are able to show spontaneity By taking part in activities such as dance, games and gymnastics which help pupils to become more focused, connected and creative By being aware of one's own strengths and limitations	By discussing fair play and the value of team work By developing qualities of self-discipline, commitment and perseverance By developing positive sporting behaviour	By developing a sense of belonging and self-esteem through team work By developing a sense of community identity through taking part in inter school events	By learning about the history of sports and where they originate from By making links with national and global sporting events such as the World Cup and the Olympics By exploring rituals surrounding sporting activities